

SCOTT BUSHKIE CBI, M&AMI, CM&AP

short bio – 43 words

Scott Bushkie is the Managing Partner and Founder of Cornerstone Business Services. With more than 25 years of experience in the M&A industry, Scott is a recognized thought-leader, bringing investment bank level services to buy-side and sell-side transactions in the lower middle market.

paragraph bio – 100 words

Scott Bushkie is the Managing Partner and Founder of Cornerstone Business Services. With more than 25 years of experience in the M&A industry, Scott is a recognized thought-leader, bringing investment bank level services to buy-side and sell-side transactions in the lower middle market. He has successfully executed hundreds of transactions domestically and internationally, working with private equity firms, family offices, and strategic buyers. As a keynote speaker, Scott has engaged audiences from national organizations to local trade groups and international delegations, with a core message for business owners and their trusted advisors to begin planning now for inevitable business transition.

full bio – 199 words

Scott Bushkie is the Managing Partner and Founder of Cornerstone Business Services. With more than 25 years of experience in the M&A industry, Scott is a recognized thought-leader, bringing investment bank level services to buy-side and sell-side transactions in the lower middle market. He has successfully executed hundreds of transactions domestically and internationally, working with private equity firms, family offices, and strategic buyers. As a result, Scott has earned the trust and respect of CPA and financial advisor alliances, investment banks, and other professional service firms around the M&A marketplace.

He is a sought-after expert on the M&A market and has been quoted by the New York Times, the Chicago Tribune, and the Associated Press. Scott writes articles for regional business papers, including a monthly syndicated column for Gannett. In 2021, Scott published his book "Finish Strong", a holistic view at business transitions for owners of privately held companies, and its companion workbook which includes exercises to help put thoughts into action.

As a keynote speaker, Scott has engaged audiences from national organizations to local trade groups and international delegations, with a core message for business owners and their trusted advisors to begin planning now for inevitable business transition.